UK and Europe travel tips

The hard part is over and you've decided where to go. Now it comes down to the organising. Sometimes it is the basic things that we tend to forget, so Qantas Holidays has compiled some tips to simplify your planning.

☀ Climate

The day-to-day climate in the UK and Europe varies, but the year is divided into four distinct seasons. In the summer months, the days are usually warm with cooler evenings. The winter season experiences much shorter days and very cool conditions, often with rain and snow.

Average temperature range in °C

	Winter	Summer
Belfast	2-7	9-18
Dublin	2-9	10-20
Edinburgh	1-7	2-14
Glasgow	0-7	9-19
London	2-7	12-22
Amsterdam	1-7	14-19
Athens	6-15	20-33
Barcelona	6-13	16-32
Frankfurt	-2-5	13-25
Madrid	2-11	16-31
Paris	1-7	13-25
Rome	5-13	12-30
Istanbul	3-12	13-29

📄 Passports, visas and insurance

Australian passport holders do not require a visa for holiday travel less than 90 days, however an electronic visa is required for entry to Turkey. Passports must be valid for at least six months from date of entry. Please confirm passport and visa requirements with your travel consultant or appropriate embassy or consular office. We strongly recommend purchase of a comprehensive travel insurance policy when you book your holiday.

⚡ Electricity

Standard voltage is 220-240 volts. The UK and Ireland use a 3 rectangular prong and the rest of Europe use a 2 rounded prong. An international adaptor is recommended.

💰 Currency

UK: The Pound sterling (GBP) is used throughout England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

Europe: The Euro (EUR) is used by a majority of European countries with the exception of Turkey (Lira), Croatia (Kuna), Denmark (Krone), Sweden (Krona) and Hungary (Forint). Major credit cards are widely accepted and ATM's are readily available throughout Europe.

💵 Tipping

Tipping in Britain and Ireland is not as prevalent as in other countries. Some restaurants include a service charge on the bill, in which case a tip is unnecessary. Throughout Europe, hotel and restaurant bills include a service charge, but hotel porters and cleaning staff usually expect something for their services. It is also customary to tip in restaurants and cafes.

NOTE: Whilst care has been taken to ensure information in this brochure is correct at the time of printing we urge you to check the details of your selected holiday with your travel consultant, prior to booking. You should inquire about local issues and conditions at destinations prior to travel. Qantas Holidays makes no representations as to the safety, conditions or other issues that may exist at any destination. Travel advice can be obtained from various sources including governments, local consular offices or the website of the Australian Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade.

Britain and Ireland

From the rolling hills of County Cork to the buzzing cobblestone streets of London, you'll feel right at home during a trip to England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales. These strongholds of history are raw and beautiful, regal and bursting with life. They're an unforgettable holiday destination.

England

From the undulating hills of Oxfordshire to Stratford-upon-Avon, the birthplace of Shakespeare, England is beauty and history combined. It's also the perfect destination for adventure and activity, whether you're cycling in Norfolk, surfing off Newquay or rock climbing in the Peak District. London, England's capital, is a melting pot of people and has some of the richest culture in Europe. Visit the Tower of London, wander along the Thames, marvel at Big Ben, take a black cab or a red double decker bus ride – all quintessential British experiences. Be sure, too, to make it out of London's gates and relax with the locals in a country pub, enjoy a balmy summer's day music festival or watch a cricket match, the nation's official pastime.

Scotland

Great things come in small packages and Scotland certainly has many treasures. For the history buff, visit Edinburgh and Glasgow; for the hungry, try haggis, Angus beef or smoked salmon, or, for the thirsty, sample the nation's malt whiskeys. There are cold, glittering seas washing against the Outer Hebrides and untamed mountain scenery of the Highlands and Northern Islands. Wildlife watchers should look for otters, eagles, whales and dolphins, while hill walkers can tackle almost 300 peaks. There's turbulent history, castles and country pubs, canoeing and caber-tossing, golfing and fishing and all-round good craic (lively conversation).

Wales

The Welsh spirit is the country's defining feature and it's evident everywhere, from its art and films to rollicking traditional music and non-stop live rock scene. Wales is also supremely beautiful; magnificent cities, sweeping mountains and dramatic coastlines. Seek out Pembrokeshire Coast National Park and walk its winding trails past pounding surf, windswept beaches and plunging limestone cliffs. Cosmopolitan Cardiff, the Welsh capital, is a mix of eccentric castle, dynamic waterfront and unmissable St. Fagans National History Museum. It's also a hotspot for nightlife and patriotic sporting events. Visit Wales and tour villages with tongue-twisting names before settling down in a cosy pub with a pint of local ale, or join adrenaline junkies in a quest for the ultimate white-knuckle adventure.

Things to see and do

- Art lovers can experience the Artists Open Houses festival which happens every year in May during the Brighton Festival

- Take a scenic walk along Hadrian's Wall
- The Chelsea Garden Show held in May is a must-do for avid garden lovers
- Enjoy the wild scenery of the Scottish Highlands
- Visit the world-famous Guinness Storehouse in Dublin
- Unfold the myths and legends as you explore the Giant's Causeway in Belfast

Ireland

From shamrocks to leprechauns and 40 shades of green, the Emerald Isle is warm and inviting. Follow its craggy coastlines and rolling hills to historic castles and cosy pubs where friendly locals chat animatedly over pints of Guinness. Ireland will delight with its unique traditions, beauty and personality.

Northern Ireland

A land full of storytellers, Northern Ireland is the ultimate holiday tale. By day, explore its lush gardens, age-old castles, monuments and monasteries, and rugged mountains. By night, enjoy its warm, welcoming pubs and hale, hearty food. After a visit to Northern Ireland, you'll have stories to last you a lifetime.
